Founded in 1973, the East Oakland Youth Development Center (EOYDC) is a community-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit agency dedicated to developing our children and youth into healthy, self-supporting and aware citizens and adults. Since 1978 the Center's FREE comprehensive programs have been coordinated to meet our clients' emotional, physical, intellectual, and economic needs. # About the After School Leadership Academy

EOYDC's After School Leadership Academy (ASLA) was designed to provide students in our community with a safe and productive space where they can not only find the resources they need to achieve academically and focus on the pathway to college activities, but receive the support and services needed to grow as responsible, active, and caring citizens.
